BE RUSHED TO SCENE
OF THE REVOLUTION*TENTH INFANTRY RECEIVES
WORD TO PROCEED TO NICARAGUA AT ONCE.*ORDERS ISSUED TODAY

President Taft Himself Directs the Movement From Beverly This Morning—Marines Proceeding Also.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Washington, Aug. 28.—American soldiers will be landed in Nicaragua within the next 48 hours. President Taft from Beverly today personally directed the immediate movement of the 10th United States Infantry now on the Panama canal zone to Nicaragua to guard American lives and property.

United States marines now are being rushed south on the transport Prairie via Colon, and the cruiser California cannot reach Nicaragua for possibly a week. Dispatches of last night and early today pictured the situation as being so acute that an immediate movement of a large force of troops was necessary.

Allegations of relations bordering on barbarism and acts even worse than those which took the troops of the United States into China to quell the boxer rebellion have been received at the state department within the last 24 hours.

The deliberate murder of two Americans, Dood and Phillips, after they had been wounded and were helpless following the massacre at Leon Aug. 19, focused attention on the previous reports of burning of churches and destruction of political prisoners held in dungeons, and other alleged acts of cruelty.

The latest reports made plain that immediate protection for Americans was necessary and it probably would not be safe to wait for the arrival of marines now enroute. The marines in the Prairie after being landed at Colon will have to be transported across the isthmus by rail and taken on the cruiser California on the Pacific side for transportation to Corinto.

That would mean a delay of at least a week. The tenth infantry can be on the ground in less than two days. Gen. Francisco Altschul, the representative of the revolutionist Junta in Washington denies the charges of barbarity brought against the troops fighting the Nicaraguan government. He alleges that the burning of churches and destruction of political prisoners was necessary to proper sanitation and that it applied alike to the dead of both sides.

In the rebel shelling of Managua during the first days of the revolution, American minister Weitzel reported that the firing had been indiscriminate upon the section of the city by the non-combatants and that an American collector of customs named Ham and several other Americans narrowly escaped injury by bullet shells.

The United States is assured that the landing of troops has the approval of the Diaz government following a further demand by Minister Weitzel upon instructions of the state department that Americans and their property must be protected from the rebels.

The Nicaraguan government is understood to have confessed its inability to meet the situation and frankly to have consented to permit the United States to land its own troops to protect its citizens. The state department has proceeded upon the conviction that its action involves no infringement of the war making power of congress or the president.

Aside from any question of treaty authorization the administration is said to be satisfied of its rights under the principles of international law that give any part of the army and navy of the United States for the protection of American interests, life, and property in a foreign country where the de facto government is either unable or unwilling to extend protection.

Officials contend that such landing of American armed forces does not constitute war in any sense; there being no purpose of territorial aggression, punitive purpose or permanent occupation. It is declared that while there are few precedents for employing regular troops in landing expeditions, that fact is accounted for by the far greater mobility and availability of marines and blue jacks.

One Pacific mail ship now at Panama will sail tomorrow with one battalion of the 10th, leaving the remainder of the regiment to be brought up to Corinto on other ships.

Although the situation in Corinto is not reported as being critical with American reinforcements, it is believed that the navy department that the little vessel now is in port there. The failure to inform the department of her arrival is believed to be due to difficulty in communication.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Green Bay, Aug. 28.—Rain which fell for five hours this morning put the race track at the Brown County fair ground near here in such condition that the first day's race program had to be postponed. The entries in the grain, vegetables, stock and sheep departments are double what it has ever been before.

Also Strikes Sheboygan.
Sheboygan, Aug. 28.—One of the worst storms of the year struck this section last night and within a short time 1.29 inches of rain fell. About 70 telephones in the city and 50 in Sheboygan Falls were put out of commission and the lines south if here were put out of commission.

Postpone Race Program.
Manitowoc, Aug. 28.—Rain which started in last night and continued up to noon today marred the county fair and forced the association to call off the races for today and to plan for a big day tomorrow.

From Ashland.
Ashland, Wis., Aug. 28.—Meagre accounts of the cyclone near Spencer last night have reached Ashland. Wires are down, denoting serious disturbances. The roof of the depot was blown off and fifteen box cars dismantled. There was a heavy rain which probably caused considerable damage in the country districts.

In Minnesota.
St. Paul, Aug. 28.—Heavy damage to property is reported in advices received here today telling of the storm which swept over northwestern Wisconsin last night. Heavy rain accompanied the storm, nearly two inches falling in an hour and a half. No loss of life is reported. Railroad stations seem to have been particular targets of the storm, seven having been destroyed in the storm district. Among the places most severely affected were Rice Lake, Boardman, Boomer, Shell Lake, and Eau Claire.

Inhabitants of Syrian Port Thrown Into Panic By Appearance of Enemy's Men-of-War.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Beirut, Syria, Aug. 28.—A squadron of Italian warships, comprising six vessels anchored off this port this morning. Their object is not known. The city is well patrolled by the Turkish garrison and all is quiet. The war vessels had previously reconnoitered the port of Jaffa in Palestine and also the Syrian seaports of Haifa and Acre but had not attempted a landing nor fired any shots.

Fear Bombardment.
The population of the coast towns however show signs of nervous tension fearing a repetition of the bombardment of last February when 60 non-combatants were killed and many wounded in the streets of Beirut by the Italian fire. At that time a number of old Turkish gunboats as well as cruisers and a torpedo boat were sunk while lying at anchor in the port.

Incomplete Returns in South Carolina Indicate No Majority for Gubernatorial Candidates.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Columbia, S. C., Aug. 28.—Incomplete returns from yesterday's democratic primary show that Gov. Cole L. Blease has a lead of 407 votes over Hugo B. Jones for the gubernatorial nomination, the figures being Blease, 56,155; Jones, 55,748; Duncan, 1,332. It is believed about 25,000 more votes yet are to be heard from. If the results are not materially changed Blease will fall of a majority and a second race will have to be run between him and Judge Jones. It is certain Benjamin R. Tillman made a clean sweep over both of his opponents and will be re-elected to the United States senate.

Canadian Premier Tells London Suffragettes Militant Methods Would Fail in The Dominion.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
London, Aug. 28.—The Canadian premier Robert L. Borden when he faced the suffragettes for the first time today took a firm stand. He told them very emphatically he had no power to introduce a general measure of suffrage for women in the Dominion of Canada, and that no threat of the employment of militant methods would have any influence on him. The delegation of the woman's social and political union was introduced by Miss Barrett. She stated their chief object was to ask the Canadian premier if he intended on his return to the dominion to introduce a government measure for the franchise of women.

"I should like to say with all respect I think the Canadian women are sufficiently capable and intelligent to judge for themselves in this matter. No suggestion of the employment of methods of any kind will have the slightest influence," he said.

POLICE PROTECTION

New York Attorneys Unearth Facts Regarding Graft Money From Disorderly Resorts.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
New York, Aug. 28.—Searching along the trail of events that lead up to the murder of the gambler, Herman Rosenthal, the state's attorneys are finding a form of social evils from which the colossal graft is yielded. This blackmail it is said, was obtained from about a dozen houses in this city, each of which paid from $1500 to $2000 a month for police protection to the inspectors in whose district they were situated. District Attorney Whitman has learned that these houses paid a high rate for police protection. They were expensively furnished and decorated, and were occupied all of the time only by the proprietors and a few servants. A list of names of the girls who could be called upon to come to the house when wanted would be given to callers and opposite the names of the girls with their ages. The list in the hands of the district attorney shows that the ages of these girls range anywhere from fifteen to eighteen years.

Assistant District Attorney Smith has been investigating this form of disorderly house graft for several weeks and the result of his investigation will probably produce a sensation.

Lieut. Becker created a bit of excitement in the corridors of the Tombs today, while taking his exercise by heaping vituperation on the head of James D. Hallen, a convicted attorney who told the district attorney yesterday he had overheard a conversation in the prison between Becker and policeman White, one of the former members of the "strong arm" squad who has been indicted for the alleged frame-up against "Big Jack" Salig.

"You are a liar," shouted Becker when he accosted the lawyer. Hallen turned away and said nothing. Becker continued his tirade, charging also that he had been spied upon by one of the prison clerks.

Enrique Maza, Who Assaulted American Charge de Affairs Dismissed From Custody Despite Protest.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Havana, Aug. 28.—Release has been granted to Enrique Maza, the Cuban reporter who assaulted the United States charge de affairs last night. This was done despite the official request handed in by Charge Hugh S. Gibson to secretary of state Manuel Sanguily, that he should be held. A vigorous protest has been made to the Cuban government by Mr. Gibson. The prisoner was taken before the magistrate sitting in the high court where he admitted the assault, declaring he was overpowered by patriotic duty in consequence of the insult heaped upon his country by Mr. Gibson insisting on the government's payment of the claims of $557,000 made by Hugh Reilly, the American contractor. On learning of the release this morning, Mr. Gibson sent a sharp note to Senator Sanguily and it is probable action will be taken to secure Maza's appearance in court.

Roosevelt had taken this position he said in the letter to Senator Clapp, chairman of the senate committee which he is preparing.

"On his own testimony I would have Senator Penrose thrown out of the senate," Col. Roosevelt declared. The colonel made this statement after he had read from what purported to be an extract from Mr. Penrose's testimony before the senate committee to the effect that he had advised John D. Archibald of the Standard Oil Company to make a second contribution to the 1904 campaign lest the committee encounter difficulties in certain quarters.

ON CHILD LABOR LAW

American Bar Association Against Employment of Children Under 14 Years—Caddies Are Hit.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Milwaukee, Wis., Aug. 28.—Having a proved, model and uniform law intended for adoption by all the states to prohibit employment of children under certain ages, the American Bar association decided today that it had gone on record against the use in any part of the country of caddies less than fourteen years old.

The proposed law as offered by Walter George Smith of Pennsylvania, provides that no child under fourteen years of age shall be permitted to work in or about, among other places, any boarding house, barber shop, laundry, garage, place of amusement or club, and although it is not intended to refer to caddies, Mr. Smith explained even after it was decided that thousands were important operatives of the golf links and would be affected that every effort should be made to have the model law generally adopted.

"Inasmuch as lawyers are generous patrons of the golf it is with considerable perplexity that this association should have gone on record as being in favor of putting out important allies out of business," said Mr. Smith. "We had no animosity against the caddies but merely consider the welfare of children in general."

"Now, we will start to part company with our pink checked assistants and employ those of tougher age," Mr. Smith's explanation of the exit of the caddie was received with applause and the proposed law was voted on unanimously.

The race question again came up before the American Bar Association today. William R. Morris, of Minneapolis, one of the three negro lawyers who had been unseated by the executive committee and non-suited by the association sent a telegram announcing his resignation saying it was based on "an entirely unselfish consideration of the best interests of the association."

On motion of Joseph Merrill of Thomasville, Ga., the resignation was accepted. "I am opposed to the admission of negroes to this organization," said Mr. Merrill, "but I want to express in a resolution of appreciation of his dignified attitude in resigning."

Mr. Morris was one of three negro members who had been unseated by the executive committee because of their race. One of the others was William H. Lewis an assistant United States attorney general who still retains his membership. The recall of judges was formally denounced by the association as a "fallacy" and as tending to deprive the public of judges of ability and high character. It was stated that the adoption of the report of the committee headed by Frank B. Kellogg of St. Paul denouncing the judicial movement expressed the sentiment of the association's 5,200 members and the attitude of attorneys generally throughout the country.

English Embassy Files Note With State Department Reiterating Protest on Panama Canal Bill.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Washington, Aug. 28.—Great Britain has reaffirmed its protest against the Panama canal bill. In a note filed today with the state department by A. Mitchell Innes, charge of the British embassy here, it was stated that if a satisfactory agreement could not be reached Great Britain would appeal to the Hague Tribunal for arbitration.

The note submitted today says Great Britain will give careful consideration to both the bill and the message President Taft sent to congress relating discrimination in favor of American coastwise shipping in the canal. If, after due consideration, it is found that no satisfactory agreement can be reached in the matter, Great Britain declares it will be necessary to appeal to arbitration.

MICHIGAN PRIMARY RETURNS RECEIVED

Amos P. Musselman of Grand Rapids, Republican Choice for Governor Over Present Secretary Of State.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Detroit, Mich., Aug. 29.—Returns thus far received from yesterday's state wide primary indicate that Amos P. Musselman of Grand Rapids, has defeated Secretary of State, Fred C. Martindale, by several thousand votes, for republican nomination for governor. Every congressman who sought re-nomination with the possible exception of one, and the bare possibility of two, has been successful in his fight. There was but one contest for the nomination for United States senator and Alfred Lucking of Detroit a democrat is leading over George P. Hummer of Holland. Returns this morning show that Wm. B. Thompson is leading Justice E. J. Jeffries for majority preference in Detroit. All of the eighteen aldermen accused of bribery sought re-nomination and it is believed several are victorious.

The progressive vote was exceedingly light throughout the state and many of the districts have not yet reported any figures, there being no contests of importance. An official count of 9,938 votes cast in 163 of the 177 Detroit precincts for mayor showed 862 progressive votes. Among the aldermen arrested in the "bribery cases" who were candidates for re-nomination, eight seem absolutely certain of victory.

American League Head Makes Ruling in Case Involving Pitcher Walter Johnson of Washington.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
New York, Aug. 28.—President Johnson of the American League ruled that Pitcher Walter Johnson's winning streak was broken in the 32nd St. Louis-Washington game. Mr. Johnson who is here on his way to Chicago said, "The winning run was made by the St. Louis club when Johnson was in the box and the game will be recorded as a defeat for him. Johnson made a wild pitch and the St. Louis box man hit him for a single that sent home the deciding tally."

John A. Heydler, secretary of the national league, states that it is his opinion that Johnson should not be charged with defeat. "The rule invariably followed by me," said Mr. Heydler, "holds that a pitcher is responsible for all runs on bases when he retires from the game and the first pitcher therefore must be charged with defeat. It is an unfair proposition under such conditions to expect the second pitcher to prevent runs."

The Philadelphia Nationals haven't next season and play the old ones. purchased Pitcher Walter Manning. And even in those teams there will be a few changes.

Reinforced concrete bats are coming. Second growth ash and hickory are getting so scarce that it will become necessary to find some other material for bats before long. Experts in the use of concrete declare it has something akin to the resiliency or "bounce" of wood, that it will not break even under the manipulation of a Lajoie or a Crawford. They say, should further "bounce" be required, it is susceptible to the introduction of rubber into the bat's composition.

Baseball players do not take very kindly to the idea of giving up the old wooden bats, however. They say before they'll do that they'll use bats made from sapling strips glued together.

A deal for a month's trip to Cuba for the Cleveland Naps probably will be made in the near future. Terms asked by Manager Davis of the club have been accepted by Manager Jimenez of the Alamedares club of Havana. Davis proposes to sail a week after the world's series. All the Naps are to go.

Connie Mack of the Philadelphia Athletics is to get a new pitching staff and trust to luck next season. Jennings, of Detroit and Callahan of Chicago, plan on getting together practically new. George Stovall, of the St. Louis Browns, will follow suit. The New York Yankees and Cleveland Naps will be shaken up. Boston and Washington alone in the American league will stand pat.

BASEBALL NOTES.

The New York Highlanders have signed George Lowe, a 17-year-old pitcher from Ridgefield Park, N. J. Johnny Dobbs, the Montgomery manager, is looking for talent and may perhaps be able to land some of the Washington youngsters.

"Dixie" Van Sickle, known as the official umpire of Hot Springs, Ark., has been signed by President Barrow of the International League.

"Bullet" Jack Thoney, the former big leaguer, is playing in the outfield and doing some swell hitting for the Jersey City team.

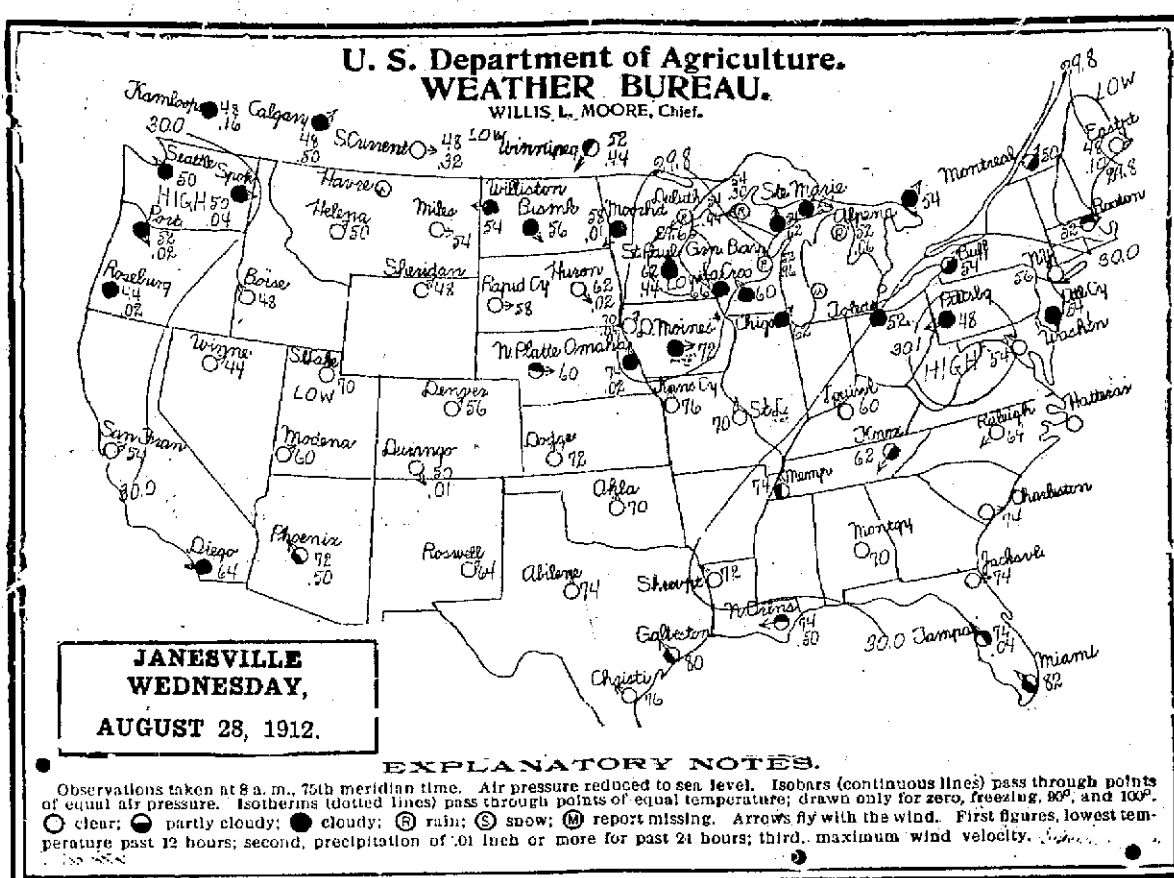

Joe Wood, the Boston Red Sox star, is the leading pitcher in the major leagues. Joe has come home a winner 26 times out of 30 starts.

The Detroit Tigers fell down badly on their Eastern trip. Even the mighty Ty Cobb couldn't start anything that would help the Tigers climb.

Derrill Pratt is the only member of the St. Louis Browns batting for 300 or better, and Monetsky and Huggins are the only Cardinals in the honor list.

That shift from Philadelphia to Boston must have been the right guess for John Titus. The veteran outfielder is producing the regular article for the Braves.

It is said that Manager McGraw, of the New York Giants, is sweet on Arnold Hauser of the Cardinals, and would like to put over a trade for the Braves.

The area of high barometer which was central Tuesday morning over Wisconsin has moved eastward and has caused fair weather to prevail over the eastern and southern portions of the United States, some light showers having occurred, however, along the Gulf coast. Fair weather prevails also over the Rocky Mountain states.

Rains have occurred in the last twenty-four hours over the lake region and northern plains states; also over Washington, Oregon and western Canada.

An area of low barometer which is central this morning over Minnesota will move eastward and will be attended by showers in this vicinity this afternoon and tonight. Generally fair weather is indicated for Thursday.

At The Theatre

A SUCCESSFUL SONG WRITER. necessary information that you will desire and will assist you if he can.

To those that are talented in the musical way and to those that have tried writing verses and to those who have tried to have their manuscripts accepted by some well known publisher, this article will be of some great assistance. Mr. L. Maynard Schwartz who is manager of The Kissing Princess, the big musical success which will soon appear at Myers Theatre, Monday, Sept. 2, and, and evening who is also the author of the book and lyrics of the above production and while still a very young man has the distinction of having written two successful musical operas, and over 60 popular songs which are naturally bringing him a handsome income. Mr. Schwartz speaks from experience and states his advice would be never to mail a copy of your efforts until you have been assured of its merits, and even then do not mail any manuscript to any but the most reliable publishers or managers and send return postage with self-addressed envelope, etc.

The best manner of finding out if your composition has any merit, is to watch for the arrival of some real worthy attraction, one that has established prestige. You should endeavor to find out if the person who you will give you an honest report. If he does, you may rest assured that it will be worth while. Best of all if you can present your manuscript in person you will be wasting no time. Many lucky friends have been discovered in this manner. Who knows but what you may be one of the fortunate ones. Mr. Schwartz will be with the Kissing Princess when they will appear at the Myers Theatre on Monday, Sept. 2. He will be pleased to give you all the

AN INTERESTING STORY.

The story of My Friend From Arkansas is one that is pure and wholesome in every respect and in its relations shows the results of too much ambition of a country girl whose education has made rural life unpleasant to her. Zip Coon, an unsophisticated old farmer, living among the hills of Arkansas, has a great ambition for the future of his daughter, Nell, and is anxious to send her to Fayetteville the leading school of the state. His poverty makes it impossible to keep her there for any great length of time without assistance, so Tom Howe, a whole-souled man with a good heart and a good head, but with little book learning, comes to Zip's rescue and unknown to Nell furnishes her father with the means that enables the girl to finish her education. When she returns home, things are so different among her own people that life on the farm is a burden to her and she seeks the society of those whose education and tastes are in keeping with those she herself has acquired while at school. The only associate is Gwladys Dudley, a scheming villain who is masquerading under the guise of a prospect for a large eastern firm, but who in reality is endeavoring to hide himself from the officers of the law, who are pursuing him for crimes committed in the east. He manages to borrow some money from Nell Coon and agrees to pay her back at the school house, but when he goes there he finds she has more money, and when he learns she will not loan that to him, in his effort to take it from her, strikes her a blow which renders her almost senseless. After he has gone she manages to crawl

LARGE NUMBER PASS CIVIL SERVICE TESTS

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Madison, Wis., Aug. 28.—Of the 356 persons who wrote civil service examinations in May, 356 qualified for the general clerk's list and 122 made the pen copyist's list. ## RACINE CLUB PLANS RUN TO JANESVILLE

Long List of Motorcyclists Entered in Endurance Run Scheduled for Labor Day.

In addition to the throngs from Rockford and Beloit who will be in Janesville for the big celebration Labor day, between twenty and thirty motorcyclists from Racine will arrive in the city shortly before noon, Janesville being the terminal for the endurance run scheduled on that day.

At a recent meeting of the Racine branch of the Federation of American Motorcyclists arrangements were made for the run on Labor day and it was decided to make Janesville the finishing point. A handsome silver cup has been donated by a Racine firm for the winner.

The run will start at seven o'clock in the morning and the time limit will be four hours. An allowance of ten minutes will be made, but no allowance will be made for lateness. It is expected that the motorcyclists will reach Burlington in one and a half hours and Janesville in four hours. Following are the entries, according to a Racine paper: Allie Peterson, No. 6; Thor, Frank Cerny, No. 9; Thor; Hiron Hanson, No. 2; Thor; H. ### WEATHER FORECAST.

For Janesville and vicinity: Showers this afternoon and tonight; Thursday generally fair, moderate to brisk variable winds becoming northwest.

SOLVING THE PROBLEM.

When this great nation was torn asunder by the strife of the war between the North and the South, the final outcome left the American people facing the problem of what to do with the colored population of the southern states—an element in society that had never been confronted before. During the fifty years since the question became a "paramount issue" south of the Mason and Dixon line, there has been much said and written pro and con on the subject. Booker T. Washington, a great, big whole-souled man, representative of the colored race, took up the problem and has done much to bring about a successful outcome. At the recent meeting in Chicago of the National Negro Business League many cases of where the former slave had become a successful business man were brought out. The following dispatch shows how they are solving the problem for themselves:

"From slavery to a founder of a town inhabited entirely by negroes was a story that thrilled delegates attending the convention of the National Negro Business League. It was told by Isiah T. Montgomery of Mound Bayou, Miss., whose wealth is estimated at $200,000—one of the colored folks who has done things," as Booker T. Washington expressed it. "Born a slave I was owned by the Honorable Joseph E. Davis, brother of the confederate president Jefferson Davis," said the speaker. "When nine years old I was taken into the office of Mr. Davis where I was taught to do clerical work. After the war Mr. Davis rented two plantations consisting of 4,000 acres to me. I handled the property for twelve years, paying from $15,000 to $18,000 annual rental. In a few years I was ranked as one of the largest cotton-raisers in the South. In 1887 I bought a tract of swamp land and started a negro colony and I called the place Mound Bayou. It grew rapidly and today has a population of more than 1,000 people. All the town officers from street cleaners to mayor are negroes."

BACON FROM DENMARK.

It is interesting if not important to note that the farmers of Denmark are investigating the opportunities for marketing in the United States their surplus of bacon and butter.

Whether they will find this profitable under existing tariff conditions is doubtful. It is not surprising, however, that the temptation should be strong for European agriculturists to invade a market in which prices have risen with skyrocket speed within the past fifteen years. Surely the invitation is strong to sell here the meat and dairy products of lands that are none too profitable, since the American farmer is getting nearly three times as much for cattle and hogs and nearly twice as much for butter and cream as he did in the early nineties.

It is too much to hope, however, that the high cost of living will be reduced by imports of Danish bacon and butter. The European demand for American agricultural products is still too strong to admit of such a result. Two years ago the exports of provisions, including meat and dairy products, amounted in value to about $150,000,000, and the balance of trade in our favor, after the similar imports had been deducted, amounted to about $142,000,000.

So long as a large proportion of the people of Europe demand upon us for meat, and while the agricultural areas devoted to the raising of cattle and hogs are being reduced, the housewife is likely to continue to quarrel with the butcher over his prices, and the butcher will continue to quarrel with the packer because he has limited the profits of the retailer.

UP TO VOTERS.

On Tuesday next it will be up to the voters to decide matters of importance for the general welfare of the state during the next two years. Aside from placing in nomination candidates for state office the selection of the candidates for the legislative places will also be made. That care should be taken in naming men for these important offices is demonstrated by the record of the past. The state is now burdened with laws that work anything but to the advantage of the business interests. There has been too much theoretical legislation, too many experiments, too many commissions, too much red tape to have a good influence upon Wisconsin as a whole. At present the one law which is under discussion the most is the income tax. The state tax commission, empowered by law, is spending much money to explain the great "benefits" of the law as they see it. It is an effort on the part of the board to keep their jobs and continue in their theoretical experiments in seeing just how far they can go in delving into the personal business of the business men, the farmers, the working men's private affairs without being brought up short. Here in Rock county the problem must be decided by the voters. Two candidates for the state senate stand for the law as it is now it, with perhaps slight alterations. Mr. Whitteit, the third candidate, is opposed to it and demands its repeal. His candidacy is based on this as well as other strong points as to regulation of state expenses. There should be no question as to his nomination. In the two assembly districts of the county, two candidates, one in the first and one in the second, stand for the law and believe it right and just. The other four, two in each district, are opposed to it. In the second district Mr. Strong demands its repeal, while Mr. Smith believes it should be amended radically. In the first district Mr. Kennedy and Mr. North both believe in radical amendments if not repeal, if demanded by the people. It is up to the voters of the county to decide who shall represent them at the next session of the legislature and they should take whom they select. It is a question of dollars and cents and not of factional politics that should govern. Good men, who have differed widely in former campaigns, are together this year in demanding a stop be placed upon experimental legislation; consequently factional lines have disappeared and are only being kept alive by men who do not yet realize the war is over. Despite his fight in the republican national convention for nomination and his disapproval of the methods used to nominate Taft, Senator La Follette is supporting him as a loyal republican and has not gone outside his party to wreak his vengeance. On Tuesday next, vote as republicans and not as factionalists. Vote for the best men for the office they seek and consider what they stand for before casting your ballot on mere reasons of sentiment.

Washington, according to the diary of John Quincy Adams, said on one occasion, when leaving the senate chamber: "I'll be damned if I'll ever go there again." Which enshrines him anew in the hearts of his countrymen.

Let us hope that the Minneapolis pastor who predicts the return of the "fig-leaf" skirt for women is not a true prophet. Remember some of the days last winter when the temperature was fifteen degrees below zero?

Mr. North of Edgerton, one of the candidates for the assembly, makes friends by his sincere statements of what he stands for and what he disapproves of. Janesville should give him a good endorsement when the time comes.

Women at Bar Harbor are said to have taken up walking canes and cocktails as fads. Still, one would think that the people who go there could afford to buy stockings in fast colors.

Nearly 2,000,000,000 cigarettes were smoked in this country last year. Probably that includes those smoked in the moving pictures.

"A farmer in Ohio claims that he killed fifty-four snakes in one afternoon," says the Milwaukee Sentinel. What kind were they—dry county snakes or wet county snakes?

Miss Maurice Rasmussen, California's prize beauty, says that the plaster-faced New York women never smile. No; they seldom take theirs straight in New York.

Henry Cabot Lodge has proved that George Washington once said "damn." And we'll wager that everybody in Lodge's audience laughed hilariously.

New York is experimenting with double-deck street cars. And that isn't the only kind of double-deck New Yorkers experiment with.

The statue of justice on the New York city hall is to be regilded. What it needs more is a coat of whitewash with plenty of lime in it.

ON THE SPUR OF THE MOMENT

Hitchin' 'Em Up.

The marriage microbe is a bird that's hard to understand. The short man always asks the tall skyscraper for her hand. The man who's six feet in his socks will wed for good and all. Some maiden who is passing fair, but only four feet tall.

The brilliant girl who takes the prize and outshines all the school, is more than apt to cast her fate in marriage with some fool.

The learned man who knows his books and has a sober mind. Most like weds the dullest young damsel he can find.

The greatest of all the girls will wed the most crossed-eyed gunk.

Who doesn't look as though he knew enough to even think.

The homely girl most likely hooks the handsome millionaire.

The frivolous maid weds a man who's loaded down with care.

The pious girl is apt to draw some old night gown to skate.

Who doesn't think that 3 o'clock is anywhere near late.

The pastor of the church may draw a social butterfly.

Who thinks more of her now fall hat than mansions up on high.

The more you try to solve the thing, the less you really know.

Philosophers all gave it up some centuries ago.

The mystery is fathomless, as much now as of yore.

It's only human nature, pure and simple, nothing more.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Putnam and little daughter, Alice, went to Beloit, Tuesday, to visit with Mr. and Mrs. Peter Patterson and attend the fair.

Mrs. Wash. Mitchell went on Tuesday to Janesville, which place will be her home. Her daughter, Miss Bertha Mitchell, was here and accompanied her. Cards had business in Janesville on Tuesday.

Mrs. Grace Stewart and three children and Miss Josephine Clawson were passengers to Monroe where they were the guests of friends.

VANILLA BEAN.

The making of vanilla extract is not a complicated process but it does call for expert knowledge of material. Vanilla beans come in all grades, from the worthless to the best. The finest beans are grown and cured in Mexico. Their value is about double that of pure silver. Every conceivable device is used to adulterate and deceive the public into buying worthless vanilla. Never buy a bottle labeled compound or modified extract or one on which the name vanilla is misspelled. The standard strength of a drug store extract is ten per cent, but the laws of Wisconsin allow peddlars and canvassers to sell three per cent extract and label it Pure Vanilla.

The pure food guarantee has nothing to do with the quality. Pure Vanilla is pure vanilla whether made from worthless beans or beans worth double their weight in silver. The worth of the beans is in their fine flavor.

Mr. Frennig, our graduate Pharmacist and Chemist, makes our vanilla from the finest beans, it is double strength, absolutely pure, of the nicest flavor, aged for at least four years and sold at 15c the ounce, 2 ounces 25c. We ask you to buy a bottle to-day. Use one-half the amount you use of any other extract in your next frosting or cream, learn its rich flavor and strength. We know you will always be our customer. ## THRILLING AEROPLANE FLIGHT

NELS J. NELSON WILL MAKE THREE AEROPLANE FLIGHTS EACH DAY OF GREEN CO. FAIR.

RACING EVENTS.

One of the best racing cards ever Framed—$1,000 stake Races. Fun for Everybody.

Nels J. Nelson, who is contracted to make three aeroplane flights each day of the Green county fair at Monroe, Wis., Sept. 12-14, is gaining a deserved reputation of being one of the most scientific and nervous birdmen in America. He has been making flights in various parts of the United States this summer and of him the Jackson, Mich., Patriot says: "It was a thriller to see him in the air, circling round and round. He dipped, cavorted, spiraled and did everything but turn turtle in the air."

A committee was present from Battle Creek to see the flights and they then and there contracted for an ascension next week.

Nelson is the newest man in the business and escapes because he is scientific and will take no chances even for the sumptuous reward he pulls down each time he flies. Nelson made his flights at Jackson, Mich., on Aug. 10 and 11. In July Nelson took a girl passenger into the air with him at New Britain, Conn. Nelson's dexterity with the aeroplane was witnessed by several thousand people at Janesville a few weeks ago when he made ascensions during the Wisconsin Eagles' convention there. A moving picture machine was attached to his aeroplane at Janesville and several films were filled with motion pictures of the Eagles' parade and scenes of the convention delegates at the Janesville fair grounds. The same thing will be done at Monroe during the Green county fair next month when a moving picture camera will be strapped to Nelson's aeroplane and views of the fair grounds thronged with people will be taken and also scenes of Monroe from the heavens.

Besides the three aeroplane flights each day of the fair, one of the best racing cards ever framed will be staged. Of the ten speed events there will be $1,000 stake races.

The fair grounds have been cleaned up and put in order for the biggest fair that the Green County Agricultural society has ever prepared for. Record crowds are expected with special train service on both the Illinois Central and Milwaukee roads each day of the fair.

IS DR. BURRUS AWAY ON COURTING TRIP?

Whereabouts of Janesville Man Who Has Ideal Affinity Is Subject of Question.

Is Dr. Burrus of this city, who sought the ideal woman to marry, and claims to have found her in the person of Miss Virginia Brooks of West Hammond, Ind., courting his affinity, or is he still seeking for a woman who comes up to the standard as fixed by himself in the letter to Rev. G. L. Morrill of Minneapolis, the match-making pastor? Dr. Burrus was expected to return to this city yesterday, but he failed to appear, and has not been seen at his office and living quarters in the Carpenter block on East Milwaukee street, and his whereabouts are still unknown.

In Minneapolis? It may be that he has gone to Minneapolis to confer with Rev. Morrill regarding his love affairs and make use of the pastor's offer to invite Dr. Burrus and Miss Brooks to his home and allow them use of his parlor for their courting. Regarding the doctor and his affinity the Minneapolis divine gave out the following statement:

"They can be introduced and use my parlor to court in, and make good eyes if they want to. Then, as things progress, we can call a taxi, go to the court house, and secure a marriage license. I will marry them and 'God Bless You.'"

"I make general promises to all bashful bachelors and lonely women to help find them their soulmate. Dr. Burrus, the young and handsome physician of Janesville, wrote me, giving specifications of his perfect woman. Through my help he has found his in charming Virginia Brooks, and I am going to do all in my power to make their romantic hearts beat as one."

Regarding Dr. Burrus and his infatuation for her, Miss Brooks has expressed herself as follows:

"So the doctor loves me because I remind him of his grandmother, does he?" she inquired. "I don't know whether that is a compliment or not. Possibly he has in mind the cherry pies his grandmother used to make. If he has, he will be disappointed in me—I don't cook."

Her Ideal Husband. "The ideal husband," said Miss Brooks, "should be a man of great personal force—a man who has the courage of his convictions. It is necessary that he be handsome—in fact I have noticed that men with the broadest shoulders usually have the weakest backbones."

"Most men do not care for women reformers. That is one of the penalties of the profession."

"Do you regret your reform activities?" she was asked.

"No, indeed," responded Miss Brooks. A gleam lighted her eye. "My, but it has been a lark," she added.

DIVORCES SECURED BY THREE COUPLES

Three divorce actions were heard before Judge Grimm in the circuit court this afternoon. Millie Northrup secured a judgment of divorce from her husband, Zade Northrup, on the grounds of desertion, the defendant not appearing. The plaintiff was allowed by the court to assume her maiden name, Millie Valleeau.

Frederick R. Green secured a divorce from his wife, Clarissa Dorothea Green, on the grounds of desertion. The plaintiff and her attorneys gave testimony for the plaintiff's side of the case, the defendant not appearing.

In the case of Grace Bishop vs. Harry Bishop cruel and inhuman treatment were the grounds advanced. No defense was set up but the defendant was called as a witness. Judgment for a divorce was granted but the court stated that if a reconciliation could be effected within a year he would issue a permit to re-marry. Arrangements were made for the custody of the three children, one in charge of the plaintiff and the other in charge of the defendant.

The only other matter to come before the court this afternoon was a foreclosure action. J. C. McNaught vs. Harriet C. Coltin et al. A Green county matter. A judgment of foreclosure was granted.

NAME HARRY OLSON; SINGS IRISH SONGS

Man Jailed for Intoxication This Morning Pledge to Police—Entertains South River Street Denizens.

His name is Harry Olson, but he has black hair, his speech is more Celtic than Scandinavian, and he sings Irish songs, last night entertaining the denizens of South River street with the "Wearing of the Green," and other classic ballads. Olson was placed under arrest last night by Patrolman Morrissey and was sentenced to eight days in the county jail by Judge Field. This morning after pleading guilty to a charge of intoxication. He was not able to pay a fine of $3 and costs. Asked where he had acquired his repertoire, so incongruous with his name, he replied that he had learned the songs on shipboard. He said his intoxication was due to his drinking cognac brandy when he should have drunk beer.

Frank Reider, a farm hand who is employed about six miles out of the city had a charge of intoxication for ten days in default of a fine of $4 and costs. He had been arrested for a similar offense about two months ago. Reider said he had drunk too much beer, but used no whiskey. The judge admonished him to leave both alone.

Patrick Goodman was sent to jail for ten days for a similar offense. He was locked up, but not brought into court, about three weeks ago, when he promised to quit drinking. John Higgins paid a fine of $2 and costs. He told the judge that this was the first time he had been arrested in seven years.

LIVESTOCK MARKET
CONTINUES STEADY

Little Change in Price List Today
Although Receipts Were Fairly Heavy.
[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Chicago, Aug. 28.—There was little change in the price list on the live stock market this morning. The demand continued steady for all grades and the heavy receipts were disposed of readily. Cattle were favored with the strongest trade although sheep had a much better market. Hogs were a shade under yesterday's average but trading continued steady. Quotations follow:
Cattle—Receipts 12,000; market steady, strong; heaves 5.85@5.90; Texas steers 5.00@6.50; western steers 6.25@9.50; stockers and feeders 4.30@7.40; cows and heifers 2.75@8.20; calves 6.50@10.50.

The Evening Chit-Chat

BY RUTH CAMERON

DIGNITY.

Popularity Papers—Being the Third of a Few Little Talks on the Ingredients of Popularity.

"A H. THE huge porringer of popularity. 'Tis fine to sit in front of it, but what a scalding you catch when it is overturned."—Daudet. Dignity is one of the qualities which helps win popularity. Many people may disagree with this, but it is true, nevertheless. By "dignity" I don't mean stiffness, haughtiness or aloofness. I mean self-respect, high mindedness, unwillingness to cheapen or lower one's self in a word—"dignity."

We never really like anyone whom we look down upon.

Some author, it seems to me it is Barrie, but I am not sure, tells of a minister who, whenever he was invited out to tea, used to relate so many funny and foolish stories about himself that those who heard him never could really respect him afterward. He was probably seeking for popularity in thus making fun of himself, but because he went too far and impaired his own dignity, he missed his goal.

Respect is part of any true popularity, just as it is the foundation of real love or friendship. We are willing to laugh at people who lack dignity; we will even seek their company for a time; but we do not admire them and we do not desire them for our most treasured friends.

Of course, dignity must not be construed in too strict a sense. A man or woman may be as genial and jolly and informal as you please without losing an atom of dignity. An unexpected caller once found Abraham Lincoln down on the floor playing leapfrog with his children, but he did not find his president lacking in true dignity. True dignity is something deeper than that. It is the kind of fine self-respect which Lincoln had and could never lose, no matter if he did do informal or unexpected things.

Respect yourself and others will respect you, and, what is more, will probably like you if you do not have other qualities that prevent it.

No one can tell you what true dignity is if you don't know in your heart. If you do know what dignity is and do have it, this may serve to remind you of its value and to assure you that it is worth cherishing if you care for popularity.

A WOMAN'S OBSERVATIONS

Edna K. Woolley

"I'm invited to a swell card party with peachy prizes," declared THE GIRL, "but how can I play cards with such hands?"

She held out a pair of hands that were brown where they were not red and tipped with nails that even her best friend would call only a dingy white.

"It's what's in the hand that matters at a card party, not the hand itself. You can hold trumps with a brown hand just as well as a white one," said the Woman of Thirty. "I don't care much what cards I hold, but it always mortifies me when my hands look like a plow-boy's. How do you keep your hands so nice looking all the time?"

"My hands look pretty decent all the time—if I do say it as shouldn't—because I never allow them to get badly tanned or burned, but remove the attentions of Old Sol at the very earliest opportunity with a little lemon juice or peroxide," said the Woman of Thirty.

"Some women try as hard as they can every summer to get the darkest coat of tan possible, just to show that they have been in the country, but besides being unbecoming and often permanently darkening the skin, tan always seems to me a good deal like the horse to an old darkey who used to work for us when we lived in the south. Uncle Zeke always said his boss' head but two faults, out in the field he'd be hardest boss to keep ever seed, and when ye do keep him he ain't worth a cuss."

"What will I do to get my hands in shape for Monday night?"

"First you must, soak them in warm soapy water for 10 to 15 minutes, and then rub cold cream into them to soften the skin. Then mix some finely sifted oatmeal with enough peroxide of hydrogen to make a paste and smear all over the hands when you go to bed, putting on an old pair of gloves to protect the bed clothes. This will take off the worst of the tan, but naturally it takes a little to make a pair of bear's paws look like the hands of a gentlewoman."

"I particularly wanted to look well on that night for I have an especial friend coming down from New York."

"Don't worry, you can make your hands look white by giving them a powder bath."

"What's a powder bath?"

"When you are getting ready for the party wash your hands in warm water, dry them and put a little cold cream, rubbing it in well. Then shake some talcum powder in a bowl and rather the hands in this just as if you were washing them. Wipe this powder all off with a soft towel and you will find that the skin looks white and pretty."

"Did you learn that trick down south?"

"Yes, indeed; the southern belles used to do it 'way back before the war. But the finishing touch is to run an orange wood stick under the nails and to polish them on the palm of the hand."

"When hands are in very bad shape I always advise rubbing them with pumice stone every night for a week to remove the outer skin and applying a piece of oatmeal and olive oil."

The Kitchen Cabinet

A LITTLE thing, a sunny smile, a loving word at noon, and all day long the day shone bright. The cares of life were made more light, and sweetest hopes were born.

FOR THE ONION LOVER.

Is the crisp deliciousness of the onion and the feeling which comes from knowing that we have a breath which will bar us from our friends one of the charms of the indulgence in the odoriferous bulb? To most of us who do enjoy the crisp and palatable vegetable eaten with discretion as to time and place, there need be no regrets. We like them ourselves, but how do we protest against the indulgence of our neighbors. There are people who have no regard for the disgust of others, and freely eat of the forbidden fruit (rather vegetable) on any and all occasions. To these who object strenuously to the presence of onion flavor in any food, there is much to say, for many dishes are simply characterless without a dash of onion juice to give it zest.

A mere touch of the flavor is not observable, but its absence is most noticeable. Robert Louis Stevenson calls the onion the poetic soul of the salad bowl. Truly our salads would be flat and unprofitable if it were not for the small bulb.

For an all round vegetable, the onion stands first, wholesome, stimulating, antiseptic and prophylactic. What more could one ask?

Those who are weak and feeble will find that the free use of the onion will give new strength.

Our grandmothers recognized this prophylactic powers (though not by that name), when giving young and old onion soup for colds and coughs.

The antiseptic effect is found to be active in the large intestine, where imperfectly digested food may be stagnating and cause self-poisoning. The onion disinfects and the whole system is cleansed.

Bolled onions do not leave the breath quite so offensively noticeable as when eating the raw ones, yet there are those who are so fond of them and make up their minds that they may as well be anathematized for a strong odor as a weak one.

Parsley is the best of odor removers, and is really very efficacious. One good Englishman said we would better be without noses than without onions.

Nellie Maxwell.

To Bed for the Sick.

Few people realize that for most diseases the bed and it alone is the greatest, surest, quickest cure the world and ages of science have yet discovered or bestowed. People as a rule, look upon going to bed for sickness as a necessary and unavoidable consequence of sickness, instead of looking upon it as they should, as being the very first and greatest part of the cure of the case.—New York Press.

The New Way.

The practical politician who in a order stage of his art kissed the babies and showered the women with inane compliments, now preserves more of his self-respect, while achieving substantially equal results, by telling the fat men they are getting thin and the lean men they are getting stout.—Puck.

MARY ELLEN'S WAY

Mary Ellen Sells a Dress to a Friend

CERTAINLY don't like this dress," thought Mary Ellen, gazing at her reflection in the glass.

"It is too tight and too short. And it isn't—really just in style. It don't seem to be near as much of a bargain as it did in the store." She twisted and turned and looked at herself with greater and greater dissatisfaction.

"But it is awfully elaborate," she continued mentally. "And it's trimmed with very fine Val lace. I wonder now if Angie wouldn't like it. It would just fit her."

She took the dress off carefully, laid it on a chair and sat and gazed at it reflectively for several minutes.

The next day she invited Angie to dinner and wore an exceedingly simple lingerie dress left over from last season.

"You look so cool," chirped Angie when she came in. "Yes, these lingerie dresses are just the dearest things to wear. They're so cool and easy to do up, yet they're always smart and dainty. I have a new one that's too lovely for words. And I got it at such a bargain!"

"Oh, let me see it!" exclaimed Angie.

Mary Ellen took her upstairs and unfolded from its tissue paper wrappings, as if it were a priceless treasure, the offending lingerie dress.

"Isn't it a dream?" she asked Angie. "Just look at that lace, and it's nearly all lace and embroidery."

"It's exquisite," rhapsodized Angie.

"Just slip it on," urged Mary Ellen. "You can put it on right over your dress."

Angie needed no second urging.

"You look perfectly sweet!" exclaimed Mary Ellen. "Really I feel as if it is selfish in me to keep it, when you look so lovely in it."

"It is selfish of you," returned Angie. "You ought to let me have it."

"And when you hear what I paid for it—" tantalized Mary Ellen.

"What did you?" asked Angie, her mouth fairly watering for the dress.

"Only ten dollars!"

"You don't mean it! You are the luckiest person! I never find bargains like that. I'll give you twelve for it."

"I couldn't buy one like it for twenty," replied Mary Ellen.

"I wish you would let me have it," coaxed Angie. "You can find another. Bargains just jump at you, whereas I can search the city over and never get one. It'll be an act of charity to let me have it."

Mary Ellen looked longingly at the dress. "I do hate to be mean," she said, evidence of yielding in her tone.

"I want a lingerie dress so much," pleaded Angie. "I haven't a thing yet for that dance at Shaw's and this would be just the thing."

"It's only a week off, too, isn't it?"

"Yes. And I'm nearly desperate."

"Well," said Mary Ellen slowly, "since you are so up against it, I believe I will help you out. You can have it."

"Oh, you dear thing!" exclaimed Angie, flinging her arms around Mary Ellen. "It's just too sweet of you for anything. How can I ever thank you?"

"I'll try to find another," said Mary Ellen resignedly. "But I know I'll never strike such a bargain as that!"

HOUSEHOLD TALKS

Henrietta D. Gould

of cinnamon and one ounce of cloves tied in a cloth so they may be removed. Sweeten with three and a half pounds of granulated sugar. Boil an hour and a half, then turn into jam crocks or small tumblers and seal. This makes a spicy accompaniment to all roast fowl!

Pears, peaches, grapes, cherries, plums and watermelon rinds are delicious pickled. The Housekeeper gives the easiest way, which, in this case, is the longest way round and the old-fashioned way in the bargain.

"Spice the vinegar, heat it and pour it over the fruit, which should be peeled or not, as preferred. Each morning for nine successive days this vinegar should be poured off, reheated and again poured over the fruit. Then the jars are sealed or covered closely and set away."

"If there is too much vinegar bottle it and use in pies and for 'sweet pickle' jelly with cold meat."

The exact amount of sugar and vinegar needed cannot be definitely stated because the flavor of fruit varies so, but if the lightest quality of brown sugar, known as "Coffee A," is used, then to every eight pounds of fruit allow four pounds of sugar, one quart of vinegar and one cup of whole mixed spices. Tie the spices in a loose bag and put them in the vinegar and sugar; a mixture of cinnamon, cassia buds, allspice and cloves is very good; be sparing of the last named except when pickling peaches. (Directions for pickling peaches were printed a few days ago.)

If the fruit is added to the boiling syrup and cooked until heated through it will suffice if the heated syrup is poured over it every day for three mornings, though the old-fashioned way quoted above is the better.

If large pears are picked, pare and halve them; if small pickle whole. Drop them in the boiling syrup and let them cook not longer than five minutes, then place them in a stone-ware crock and finish as directed.

Spiced currants are an exception to the rule; for six pounds of this fruit use four pounds of sugar, one pint of cider vinegar and ground mixed spices, to suit the taste. Boil down until quite thick, cover and put away at once.

Plums, too, need a little different treatment from that given heavier fruit. For them allow three and a half pounds of sugar to seven pounds of plums and one quart of vinegar and whole spices, in a bag, and boil the mixture five minutes. Wash the plums and prick them with a fork to prevent the skins bursting. Drop into the hot syrup and cook until they are tender but not until they fall apart. Lift out with a draining spoon and continue to boil the syrup until it is reduced one-half. Pour the syrup over the plums and put away. Damsen plums make the best of all sauces for meats. To each pound of Damsen measure a half a cup of sugar and put it in a preserving kettle with the whole spices, tied in their bag. Add just enough syrup to moisten the sugar and dissolve with gentle heat. Seed the plums and boil them in the syrup until they are rich and thick like jam.

Spiced grapes are prepared by removing their skins and boiling the pulp and then pressing through a fruit sieve to strain out the seeds. Weigh the fruit before cooking and use a cup of strong vinegar to every seven pounds. If you have grape juice saved from grape preserves add a cup of that. Spice with two ounces

Heart and Home Problems

MRS. ELIZABETH THOMPSON

HEART and HOME. Dear Mrs. Thompson: (1)—Is it etiquette for a young lady to ask a young man to dance with her if they are friends? (2)—If I am hostess at a party, would it be right for me to introduce at the door to those I don't know. ANXIOUS.

(1)—No. (2)—Yes. Dear Mrs. Thompson: I have finger prints on my piano. What will remove it? P. A. L. Wipe with soft cloth dipped in alcohol.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am engaged. I know my intended loves me, but he admires a very flashy, gaudy woman. I don't like her at all. If this keeps up I know my heart will break. What shall I do? Clarence is eighteen and I am seventeen and I am sure we are old enough to be married. I can't bring myself to make up my mind, though he has kissed me. FORGET-ME-NOT.

My dear little girl, hearts don't break at seventeen, and a lad can admire many women at eighteen without being a bit in love with any of them. You are both too young to marry, or even to know if you are really in love with each other. If he wants you to marry him now, tell him to wait until you are eighteen anyway. By that time he'll be all over his admiration for the gaudy woman.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: (1)—I have gray eyes, light hair and light complexion. What am I? (2)—My hair is very short and I can't wear it in a pomp. What is the best way to wear my hair? (3)—What are the best colors for me to wear? (4)—Will Norfolk suits be in style this winter? ANNA.

(1)—Blond. (2)—Part it in the middle or at one side—whichever is most becoming and use "invisible" hairpins to hold the ends tucked in to look like a coil. With a little practice you can make it look very pretty. Brush your hair a great deal, so that it will be fluffy. (3)—You can wear any color except in the vivid shades. (4)—Yes.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: Do you know anything to cure people of thinking wrong of you when you never think if yourself and when you are minding your honest business. If I go out as a faithful wife and try to secure my husband a better position or higher pay, do I have to take the public or even my nearest friend, into my confidence? My husband doesn't know about these modest kindnesses and I wish him to think he gets everything on his own merit. Is it any harm to anyone if I feel it my duty to "mother" him a little? A CHRISTIAN-WIFE.

Trained Nurses at Sea.

One of the great transatlantic steamship lines has added trained nurses to the medical personnel of its vessels. This opens a sea career for the trained nurse. Undoubtedly other lines will do the same and the nurse will become as indispensable an adjunct to the first class passenger vessel as the ship's doctor. New York State Journal of Medicine.

Near English.

A true specimen of the Highlandman's difficulties with the English language: Farmer (who had instructed his Gaelic shepherd to look for a number of sheep that had wandered from the fold): "Well, Donald, have you found them?" "Aye, master." "Where did you get them?" "Well, I got two by 'tself, one together, and three among one of McPherson's."—London Daily News.

SAVE THE BABIES

Pertinent Suggestions on the care of the little ones during the hot months.

By DR. LESLIE D. SMITH, M. D., D. O.

Readers are invited to use this service by asking questions of Dr. Smith regarding specific cases. Answers will be published in these columns in the order questions are received. Dr. Smith will not prescribe in any case, but will gladly advise the best course to pursue.

TEETHING.

Baby has a tooth! The lucky person who discovers baby's first tooth is supposed to receive a gold thimble as a reward. Some say the discoverer is supposed to make the baby a present. At any rate, it is quite an event. It is one of the "mile stones" or "period markers" in the evolution of a human being. Nature has placed these period markers at various intervals throughout our lives, first, for the guidance of those who are responsible for our welfare, and later for our own guidance. How many mothers and fathers recognize these period markers when they see them and can interpret their meaning and apply it. Few, very, very, few indeed. This is a sad state of neglect in our education. It only emphasizes the need of adequate training for parenthood. If adults could read and interpret and apply their meaning, not only in their own case but in others, the amount of suffering, misunderstandings and heartaches which could be avoided can only be guessed at.

To the parents who can understand, it means that Nature is getting baby's system ready for solid food, but they also know that no solid food must be given until there are a sufficient number of teeth of the proper kind to chew it.

The first teeth, or "milk teeth" as they are called, are twenty (20) in number and the time and order of their appearance vary a great deal in different children.

Babies have been born with teeth; some do not get a tooth until twelve months old. If baby does not have two lower middle teeth at the end of eight months look for some error in the food.

The teeth are cut or erupted in groups, the cutting of each group being followed by a period of rest.

"Of all the questions in medicine probably none has led to more discussion than this: Does the cutting of teeth effect the health of the child?" Let us apply a little reasoning and common sense to the question. Teething is a normal condition in the course of development, not a disease. Should anything which is necessarily a physiological process cause disease and suffering? I think not. Babies out teeth from the age of six months to three years, therefore, if all the ills which are commonly supposed to be due to teething were really a fact and did exist, all the babies would be sick all the time between these years.

Many a poor baby has suffered for days from an abscess in the ear when the pain and restlessness have been ascribed to the teeth.

Don't think because baby is big and fat and has no teeth that they will come in fine and that his nutrition is all right.

Don't think because he has a convulsion and a tooth is coming in that he might not be developing a serious illness.

Don't think because baby shrieks with pain that there can not possibly be anything else wrong with him because he is cutting a tooth.

Dr. Beina says—"It is my opinion that in a very large percentage of healthy children the cutting of teeth produces no symptoms. In the high by nervous or poorly fed and ill-nourished, a chain of symptoms may be produced which will last a few days (restlessness in day-time, loss of sleep at night, some temperature and the loss of appetite and some bowel disturbances) which may be traced to the eruption of teeth."

It is unfortunate that babies are not born with teeth, as so many of the ills from over or improper feeding have been overlooked and allowed to run into a serious condition because baby is cutting a tooth.

EIGHT NEW MEMBERS OF SCHOOL FACULTY

Important Changes in Instructors At High School For Coming Year Which Begins Next Tuesday.

Eight changes in the high school faculty have been made during the past summer and eight new instructors will take up their work under Principal H. C. Buell when the school year opens next Tuesday, Sept. 3. The list of new teachers and the branches they will handle are given below:

Prof. Guy W. Curtis, formerly of the Oshkosh Normal School, will take charge of athletics, filling the position which was taken last year by Donald McMurray, who resigned in June to accept a scholarship at the University of Wisconsin. Mrs. Curtis will assist Mr. Manross in the commercial department.

The increasing popularity of the commercial department has made it necessary to have two instructors. Prof. D. D. Manross will continue as head of the department. The science department will also have two instructors this year to take care of the increased number of students. Miss Isabel Cornish will be at the head with Miss Trine E. Land as assistant. Both are experienced teachers and come highly recommended.

In the English work, Miss Grace who was a member of the faculty two years ago, will succeed Miss Edith Bowen. Miss Mary Armstrong, who has given the local school most efficient service for a number of years, has resigned her position as instructor in botany and her place will be taken by Miss Martha McClure of the University of Wisconsin.

In the manual training work H. H. Coplan of the Michigan Agricultural College, East Lansing, Mich., will be a new instructor, succeeding Valdemer Beers.

Miss Frances Hill will have charge of the physical training work for girls, which position was so capably filled last year by Miss Lucile Cuyler.

Miss Maud Munroe, who for the past year has been teaching at Everett, Washington, will instruct in English the coming year. Miss Grace Edwards having resigned. The old members to remain are the Misses Vlymen, Dyrd, Gerardo and Carole, Miss Zeining, and the Professors Roethe, Arbuthnot, West and Manross.

The city school board has provided the schools with music and drawing instructors. The supervisor of music will be Miss Emily Lewell and of drawing Miss Adelaide Chase. Mrs. Hyde, who had charge of both subjects the last few years, has resigned and will make her home in Madison, where she moved during the last year.

About the only change in remodeling was done at the high school. Several of the rooms which were remodeled last year have been completed and finished in hard wood. The floors have all been scraped and oiled.

SIDEWALK SKETCHES.

LAZINESS!

(By Howard L. Rann.)

LAZINESS is a form of creeping paralysis which has such a burning influence upon some people, that they are totally incapable of recognizing a day's work when they are led up to it.

It is usually accompanied by a prejudice against labor in any form and by an appetite which knows no brother. When a woman is tied to this combination until the last triumphant trump, she will have to hurdle from the cook stove to the wash tub and back again or starve.

Laziness may either be acquired or inherited, like the habit of snoring from any angle. Acquired laziness can sometimes be dislodged by moral suasion or running over the patient with a flour pin, but the inherited kind is harder to cure than an attack of swelled ego.

Laziness begins to show its teeth early in life, and can always be detected by a disinclination to fill the woodbox or go after the cow. When these symptoms appear they should be taken firmly in hand and eradicated with a loving purpose and a four-inch strip of hickory bark.

Many a confiding young bride has married a stout, healthy groom in the belief that he would provide something besides poetic piffle and soul kisses, and then has waked up to find herself building the kitchen fire with hard coal and a strawberry box.

This world is full of men who are too lazy to do anything but eat everything on the table but the vinegar cruet, after which they will curl up on the front porch until the supper bell rings. The only cure for this variety of inbred laziness is a prompt form of unwept death.

Laziness sometimes runs in family groups and causes the poor relief fund to shrink like an election forecast. This kind of laziness is always seen at the moving picture show, however, and appears to live on ice cream cones and plug tobacco.

It is these more laws against laziness, there would be fewer catastrophes in the grocery business.

SOUTH FULTON

South Fulton, Aug. 27.—At the home of Mrs. L. S. Wylie last Wednesday occurred a very pleasant gathering, it being her 80th birthday. Relatives and friends to the number of thirty were served at a delicious three course dinner. The afternoon was spent in a pleasant social way and numerous presents were left to remind Mrs. Wylie of the pleasant event.

Miss Edna Walrath of South Dakota is visiting at the home of her cousin, Grant Walrath.

Miss Mildred McCafferty has finished her musical work in this vicinity for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Grunsel spent Tuesday and Wednesday at the home of her people in Harmony.

Mrs. James Thomson has returned after a two weeks' visit in Iowa.

Archie Sommerfelt was operated on for adenoids in Janesville one day last week.

Mrs. Mary Bancroft visited the past two weeks with her niece, Mrs. Mark Thompson.

Mr. Skinner and family from the River Road attended the U. B. Church Sunday.

Come to the home of James Thomson next Friday evening and get all the ice cream you wish.

Mr. and Mrs. James Pennycook entertained Messrs. Arthur Albright and Edward Davis and families Sunday.

Lydia Sommerfelt returned to the teachers training school in Janesville Monday after her summer vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. John Boetcher of Janesville are visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. E. Davis.

Lester Thomson returned home last Friday from Iowa where he has been working the past few months.

Rev. DeHaven will preach his farewell sermon at the church next Sunday afternoon. He expects to return to his home in New York soon.

Leslie and Eleanor Stark spent Sunday in Edgerton. Mrs. Ratzloff, their cousin, returned with them for a few days' visit.

WEST CENTER

West Center, Aug. 26.—Mr. and Mrs. Cory returned from Lake Kegonsa last Monday.

Miss Anna Jaeger sewed for Mrs. William Harnack the first of last week.

B. W. Snyder has had his barn and corn-crib shingled.

F. Quade and family spent Friday evening with Mr. and Mrs. William Harnack.

The following ladies called on Grandma Lang Friday afternoon: Mrs. Schroeder, Mrs. Schoen, Mrs. Wulstrack, Mrs. Henry Lang, Mrs. Chris Harnack, and Mrs. Frank Bloedorn. Mrs. Lang is very sick and there is little hope for her recovery.

Local relatives received word that Mrs. Anna Wulstrack and daughter, Mrs. William Kuehn and little daughter Eva, who live near Dayton, are visiting with relatives in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. William Harnack spent Sunday with Anton Wunder and family.

Herman Natz was given a birthday surprise party Saturday evening. A large number were present and enjoyed a very pleasant evening.

The hot weather is very favorable for the corn crop. Threshing is nearly completed in this vicinity. Tobacco sold, the average price being about 9 cents straight.

ORFORDVILLE

Orfordville, Aug. 27.—Ollie Peterson left Monday for Verona, North Dakota, where he has been engaged as principal of the school for the third year.

Grant Paukhurst has gone back to work after spending his vacation with his parents here.

The ball game Saturday between the married and single men, afforded much joy to the onlookers, but hardly displayed scientific playing. The married men had not much of a show until the umpire was replaced by another, who was willing to give them a decision now and then. The score was lost toward the end.

C. Campbell is here from Chicago, for a short preliminary inspection of the tobacco.

S. Rabinowitz was in town Monday on his way home from Janesville, where his wife and daughter took the train for Minneapolis, Sunday night.

Miss Alma Wells left Sunday for her home in Madison, accompanied by little Barbara Wells.

Miss Esther Burnin has entered the training school for teachers at Janesville.

L. E. Gettle of Edgerton, was in town Tuesday, looking after his political fences.

A terrific hailstorm was reported Tuesday, as passing about four miles south of town, riddling the tobacco. The section right around Orfordville has escaped thus far.

The ordinance regarding the disposal of garbage is of a pale and sickly complexion, and seems to be going into a decline.

ALBANY

Albany, Aug. 28.—Mrs. Thos. Mack returned Saturday from a week's visit with friends at Stoughton.

Mrs. Kate Riggles of Beloit, visited at Mrs. August Maulkows from Thursday until Saturday, attending the Sunday school picnic on Friday.

A great many from here attended the Firemen's tournament held in Brodhead, Thursday, and all report a fine time.

Not nearly such a large number as usual attended the Sunday school picnic, this year, but all who were there certainly enjoyed themselves. The ball game in the afternoon between the single and married men resulted in a score of 13 to 23 in favor of the single men, after and during the ball game, ice cream was served.

M. M. McPherson of Salmon City, Idaho, called on relatives and friends here last Wednesday and Thursday.

He is a son-in-law of Chris McIntire. He was on his way home from an extended visit in Canada and Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Morgan visited in Orfordville, last Wednesday.

The Meanest Ever.

The meanest trick ever perpetrated upon a lover was that which his girl's pa sprung upon an Arlington Heights youth who stayed longer than the old man's stock of patience could last. He finally appeared at the head of the stairs and began to sing "The Morning Light is Breaking; the Darkness Disappears."

December 16, 1773

A little affair occurred in New England that went down in history as

The Boston Tea Party

"There's a Reason"

An English King had told his subject colonists that if they drank tea they must pay a tax on it—an unjust tax that made revenue, not for Americans but for Englishmen.

It was a tax that increased the high cost of living of those days—and our forefathers went to the wharf where the tea ships were moored, split open the tea chests and spilled their contents into Boston Harbor, thus producing the largest and most expensive bowl of tea the world has ever seen.

Today

Is repeated practically the same thing.

The Brazilian Coffee Trust, operated by foreign money kings, working outside the control of our National Anti-Trust laws, have imposed a tax upon American citizens which has raised the price of even the cheapest grade of coffee from 15c to 25c per lb.

During three past years this trust has taken Hundreds of Millions of Dollars from the pockets of American Citizens.

It has given Brazil $5 Millions of Dollars with which to retire her National Bonds.

It has given Brazil 10 Millions of Dollars to pay interest on her bonds.

It has given Brazil a "bought and paid for" supply of coffee on hand worth 90 Millions of Dollars and—

It has paid millions upon millions of profit into the coffers of the Foreign Money Kings, and yet the coffee people report a falling off in sales of about 200 million pounds in the past two years.

Why This Heavy Reduction?

Until recently the ever increasing army of Postum users, thought only of health as a "reason" for quitting coffee. Now Economy is another "reason." A third "reason," Improved Flavor, has come in with prepared instantly by placing a spoonful in a cup and pouring hot water over it.

This presents a delicious beverage much resembling high grade Java in color and taste, but absolutely pure and free from the coffee drug "caffeine" or other harmful ingredient.

Health, convenience, flavor and economy have induced people to change from coffee to Postum, then follows better health, freedom from headache, indigestion, nervousness and other coffee ills.

The Result

In hundreds of thousands of American homes today coffee is forgotten and Postum has become the regular table beverage. It is an American drink made by Americans from American products.

A 100-cup tin Instant Postum, 50c, (equals 1-2c per cup), a t Grocers. (Smaller tins at 30c.) Regular Postum, large package, (must be boiled 15 minutes), 25c.

"There's a Reason"

Coffee averages about double that cost.

"That's a woman—a young girl's view. That's the view Dominick himself probably took. It's the sort of idea you might expect him to have, something ornamental and impractical, that's all right to keep in the cupboard and take out and dust, but that don't do for every-day use. That sort of thing is all very well for a girl, but it doesn't do for a man. It's not for this world and our times. Maybe it was all right when a fellow went round in armor, fighting for unknown damels, but it won't go in California to-day. The woman was a working woman, she wasn't any great girl. She earned her living in an office full of men, and I guess there wasn't much she didn't know. She saw through Dominick and gathered him in. It's all very well to be chivalrous, but you don't want to be a confounded fool."

"Are you a 'confounded fool' when you're doing what you think right?" "It depends on what you think right, honey. If it's going to break up your life, but you off from your kind, make an outcast of you from your own folks, and a poverty-stricken outcast at that, you're a confounded fool to think it's right. You oughtn't to let yourself think so. That kind of a moral attitude is a luxury. Women can cultivate it because they don't have to get out in the world and fight. They keep indoors and get taken care of, and the queer ideas they have don't hurt anybody. But men—"

He stopped, realizing that perhaps he was talking too frankly. He had long known that Rose harbored these Utopian theories on duty and honor, which he thought very nice and pretty for her and which went gracefully with her character as a sheltered, cherished, and unworried maiden. It was his desire to see what effect the conversation was having on her that made him deal so unceremoniously with ideals of conduct which were all very well for Bill Cannon's daughter but were ruinous for Dominick Ryan.

"If you live in the world you've got to cut your cloth by its measure," he continued. "Look at that poor devil, tied to a woman that's not going to let him go if she can help it, that he doesn't care for—"

"How do you know he doesn't care for her?" The interruption came in a tone of startled surprise and Rose stared at him, her eyes wide with it. For a moment the old man was at a loss. He would have told any other man that he had played a dastardly part. He saw himself a creature of monumental, gross selfishness, who had cajoled a young girl, in a moment of softness and sentiment, into an action which had done nothing but distress and humiliate her. He, who should have been the strong one, had been weak. It was he who should have seen how things were going; he, the married man, who had allowed himself to feel and to yield to a love that ought to have been hidden forever in his own heart.

He felt that it would be a sort of expiation to go back to his wife. That was where he belonged. Rose must never again cross his path, have a place in his thoughts, or float a soft beguiling image, in his memory. He had a wife. No matter what Berny was, she was the woman he had married. She had not deceived him. It was he who had done her a wrong, and he owed her a reparation.

In his raw state, his nerves still thrilling with the memory of that moment's embrace, he saw Berny from her own point of view. He lost the memory of the complacent mistress in the picture of the unloved wife, on whose side there was much to be said. Morbidity colored his vision and exaggerated his sense of culpability. If she had an ugly temper, had it not been excited, fed and aggravated by the treatment she had received from his family? If they had maintained a different attitude toward her, the poor girl might have been quite a pleasant, easy-going person. In all other ways she had been a good wife. Since their marriage, no other man had ever won a glance from her. She had often enough assured Dominick of that fact, and he, for his part, knew it to be true. She had struggled to keep a comfortable home on their small income. If she was not congenial to him—if her companionship was growing daily more disagreeable—was it all her fault? He had known her well before he married her, six months of the closest intimacy had made him acquainted with every foible of her character. It was no story of a youth beguiled and deceived by a mature woman in the unequal duel of a drawing-room courtship.

Her letter intensified his condition of self-accusation, chafed and irritated the soreness of shame till it became a weight of guilt. It also stirred afresh the pity, which was the strongest feeling he had for her. It was the tenderest, the most womanly letter, Berny had ever written him. A note of real appeal sounded through it. She had humiliated herself, asked his pardon, besought of him to return. As he thought of it, the vision of her alone in the flat, bereft of friends, dully devoid of any occupation, scornful of her old companions, fawningly desirous of making new ones who refused to know her, smote him with an almost sickening sense of its pitifulness. He felt sorry for her not alone because of her position, but because of what she was, what her own disposition had made her. She would never change, her limitations were fixed. She would go on longing for the same flesh-pots to the end, believing that they represented the highest and best.

Berny had realized that her letter was a skillful and moving production, but she did not know that it was to gain a hundredfold in persuasive power by falling on a guilty conscience. It put an end to Dominick's revolt, it quenched the last sparks of the mutinous rage which had taken him to Antelope. That same afternoon in his frigid bedroom at the hotel, he answered it. His reply was gering a new dress in which to greet him and a new hat to wear the first time they went out together. How she was to pay for these adornments, she did not know nor care. The occasion was so important that it excused any extravagance, and Berny, in whose pinched, dry nature love of dress was a predominant passion, was glad to have a reason for adding new glories to her wardrobe.

On the Saturday morning she went out betimes. Inquiry at the railway office told her that the train which connected with the branch line to Rocky Bar did not reach the city till six in the evening. She ordered a dinner of the choicest viands and spent part of the morning passing from stall to stall in the market on Powell Street, spying about for dainties that might add a last elaborating touch to the lengthy menu. The afternoon was dedicated to the solemn rites of mending, manicuring, and hair-waving at a beauty doctor's. On an ordinary occasion these unwonted exertions in the pursuit of good looks would have tired her, but to-day she was keyed to a pitch where she did not notice small outside discomforts.

Easy to Watch Auto's Speed.
A New York inventor has devised a mechanical attachment for an automobile which, on pressing a button, will start a watch or clock fastened to the dashboard. At the end of a mile the watch stops automatically, thus enabling the driver to test his speed from time to time.

INDIAN KILLED ON TRACK.
Near Rochelle, Ill., an Indian went to sleep on a railroad track and was killed by the fast express. He paid for his carelessness with his life. Often it is that way when people neglect coughs and colds. Don't risk your life when prompt use of Dr. King's New Discovery will cure them and so prevent a dangerous throat or lung trouble. "It completely cured me, in a short time, of a terrible cough that followed a severe attack of Grip," writes J. R. Watts, Floydada, Tex., "and I regained 15 pounds in weight that I had lost." Quick, safe, reliable and guaranteed. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free at Peoples' Drug Co.

FIRM FOUNDATION

Nothing Can Undermine It in Janesville.

People are sometimes slow to recognize true merit, and they cannot be blamed, for so many have been humbugged in the past. The experience of hundreds of Janesville residents, expressed publicly through newspapers and other sources, places Doan's Kidney Pills on a firm foundation here. Mrs. B. F. Jones, 419 Western Ave., Janesville, Wis., says: "My back was so painful that I had to go around all stooped over and sometimes there was weakness through my loins that made it impossible for me to stand. I did not sleep well and it seemed as if a weight were tied to my back. Seeing Doan's Kidney Pills highly recommended, I got a box at the People's Drug Co., and began their use. They cured me and at that time I was pleased to make the fact known by means of a public statement. I take pleasure in confirming all I have previously said regarding Doan's Kidney Pills and add that I value them as highly as ever. I know that this remedy can be relied upon to correct symptoms of kidney trouble."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.
Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Eccentric Tides.

Owing to the effects of shore lines and other influences which are more or less obscure, it is very difficult to account for the peculiarities exhibited by tidal waves in various parts of the world. Interfering waves cause once-a-day tides at Tahiti and in some other places, while on the other hand in the harbors back of the Isle of Wight and in the Tay in Scotland there are three tides in a day. The latter have been ascribed to overtides, produced by the modification of tidal waves running ashore and resembling the overtones of musical sounds.

FORTY YEARS AGO

Janesville Daily Gazette, Aug. 28, 1872—Large and Enthusiastic Audience Last Evening. At no time during the present campaign has it been possible to accommodate the vast crowds which have endeavored, on various occasions, to gain admission to Lippin's hall to listen to the republican speakers who have expounded the great truths so anxiously sought for. And last night there were more disappointed ones than at any previous gathering. The name and fame of Matt H. Carpenter was sufficient to bring out the entire republican element of the city, and of course it was impossible for all to gain admission.

The exercises of the evening were inaugurated by a musical selection by the Bower City Band, followed by a solo and chorus, "Hero of the Wilderness," excellently rendered by Messrs. Woollett, Bennett, Wilson and to the new Masonic hall in Smith's block. The good taste displayed in the selection and arrangement of colors and the beauty of the design indicates superiority on the part of those gentlemen.

IF THIS IS YOUR BIRTHDAY

Consider well where you place your money and avoid losses. Changes and travel are of doubtful advantage, and careful attention to accustomed tasks is the best course for you.

Those born today will have the fault of carelessness, and the desire to keep up appearances will lead them into foolish extravagances. They will choose their friends from among showy people and will be inclined to be climbers, rather than to appreciate more valuable things.

Man longs for fame at any price, if it's for but a day, for one brief hour to cut some ice, and then to fade away. Where are the great celebrities who flourished yesterday? Their fame was borne on every breeze in either hemisphere. Then in the limelight were they all, and honor crowned their names; we hung their pictures on the wall, in large and gilded frames. But for their pictures we've no use, since all their glory flew; oh, what's become —a Shoe. Today the widely touted chap all self-complacent grins; tomorrow he is off the map—and where is Johnnie Blinn? Man takes an ax and kills a friend, and goes upon the stage; he thinks his fame will never end—he'll always be the rage; then some one takes a gun and kills some six or eight or ten; the first man's name goes off the bills, and he comes back again. So let us humbly toil and sing, content to be obscure, for fame's a vain and trifling thing that seldom will endure.

Incredulous.

There are lots of people in the world who won't be satisfied that the high cost of living is bad enough until they have bought books from agents on the subject.—Atchison (Kan.) Globe.

victims to stomach, liver and kidney troubles just like other people, with like results in loss of appetite, backache, nervousness, headache, and tired, listless, run-down feeling. But there's no need to feel like that as T. D. Peabody, Henry, Tenn., proved. "Six bottles of Electric Bitters," he writes, "did more to give me new strength and good appetite than all other stomach remedies I used." So they help everybody. LANDS

IF YOU ARE interested in real estate in the Northwest, you will do well to place an ad in the Want Columns of the Aberdeen Daily News. Aberdeen, S. D., the best advertising medium in this territory. Read every day by more than 25,000 people. Rates: 1 cent per word, first insertion, special rate by the week or month. Write for sample copy. S-12 1f.

Read the Want Ads.

ADVERTISERS—In placing your ad, three things must be considered—circulation, class of readers and price. The Reporter gives your ad greater measure of service for less money than any other newspaper in northern Iowa. The Reporter is read by 30,000 people every issue. Advertising rates one-half cent a word each insertion. Cash with order. Reporter, Waterloo, Iowa. S-1 46t.

FIND LAND BUYERS through advertising in the Daily Journal-World. Lawrence, Kansas. The farm lands about Lawrence are the finest in Kansas and therefore are high priced. Young farmers are looking for cheaper farms. The Daily Journal-World has a sworn circulation of 5,500, about half of which is in the country, and carries a full page of Want Ads. Rates: 1c per word 1 time, 3/4c per word for one week. The World Company, Lawrence, Kansas. S-1 46t.

ADVERTISERS—The great state of North Dakota, offers unlimited opportunities for business to classified advertisers. The recognized advertising medium is the Fargo Daily and Sunday Courier-News, the only seven day paper in the state and the paper which carries the largest amount of classified advertising. The Courier-News covers North Dakota like a blanket, reaching all parts of the state the day of publication; it is the paper to use in order to get results. Rates: One cent per word first insertion; one-half cent per word succeeding insertions; fifty cents per line per month. Address: The Courier-News, Fargo, N. D. S-20 1f.

FARMS FOR SALE—Southwest Iowa is one of the richest agricultural districts in the world and the Daily Nonpareil is practically the only daily paper read in this territory. It is issued morning, evening and Sunday, and with its 17,000 circulation covers the field like a blanket. If you want results from your advertisement, try it. One cent a word for the first insertion, and one-half cent a word for each subsequent insertion. Classified in display 25c an inch. The Daily Nonpareil, Council Bluffs, Iowa. S-1 46t.
